

September 9, 2008

To all History Department Graduate Students:

What follows is a tentative list of workshops for the fall. All will be held on Mondays, 2 - 3:45pm and most of them in the Dell House seminar room. They will be very informal and I hope helpful. I'll be calling on some of you individually for help. Volunteers are most welcome.

SCHEDULE OF HISTORY DEPARTMENT GRADUATE STUDENT WORKSHOPS

Sept. 2nd - 4th: Individual appointments with incoming grads.

9/8: Workshop for TAs

9/15: Workshop on first year papers
Ting Zhang, Craig Hollander

9/22: Library Resources (held in the Electronic Resource Center computer classroom M Level of the Library).
Margaret Burri

9/29: Center for Educational Resources (held in the Electronic Resources Center, M Level of the Library)

10/6: Organizing data: note taking and databases

10/13: Workshop on job hunting [classes are suspended on this day, and I can reschedule if this date inconveniences too many people].

10/20: No workshop: RGW out of town

10/27: Workshop on conference presentations
Uttam Bajwa

11/3: Workshop on grants and fellowships

11/10 & 11/17: Workshops on first year topics and research—informal presentations by grads on what they are doing.

Weeks of 11/10 & 11/17: Mock interviews