

The Department of Modern Languages & Literatures

The Robert Bruce Roulston Memorial Fund

The fund was established in honor of Robert Bruce Roulston, who was a Professor of German at Johns Hopkins for 37 years. He received his B.A. from Hopkins in 1900 and his Ph.D. in German in 1906. Prof. Roulston served as director of the Summer School and was the editor of the JHU Alumni Magazine for twenty years.

One grant in the amount of $1,500 will be awarded to a student in German to acknowledge their academic achievements in the field. The grant can be used for research conducted abroad or in the US.
